

MRS. STANFORD WILL COME THIS WAY

A distinguished passenger on the S. S. Ventura due here next Wednesday from San Francisco is Mrs. Jane L. Stanford, who intends to make a tour of the world. According to San Francisco files she was to have left San Francisco yesterday. She goes first to Australia where she will visit her brother-in-law, Thomas Welton Stanford. Mrs. Stanford will be accompanied by her secretary, Miss Bertha Berner, a maid, and possibly one of her relatives. It is Mrs. Stanford's intention to sojourn in the tropical countries and India in particular, and she may spend a year and a half abroad seeking rest and recreation.

THE RECEPTION TO BISHOP RESTARICK

Tomorrow is the day set for the reception to Bishop and Mrs. Restarick, on the first anniversary of their arrival here. It is hoped a goodly number of people will assemble, on the beautiful lawn of St. Clement's Rectory grounds, where through the courtesy of the Governor the band will play from 4:30 to 6 p. m.

The missionary meeting will take place on the same day, and also in St. Clement's Parish hall, entrance on Keeaumoku street, at 3:30 lasting for an hour, when Bishop Restarick and Deaconess Drant, late of Cincinnati, will make addresses and the "United Offering" will be taken up. Those only having envelopes, are supposed to enclose in cents the number corresponding to as many years as he or she has lived.

WANTS TO BURY TANBARA IN CHURCH

The Rev. M. Motokawa, the minister who has been attending the spiritual wants of Tanbara Giesaburo, has applied for permission to take the body after the execution. He desires to remove the body to his church and provide a Christian burial service. There will probably be no objection to the plan from the United States authorities.

CONCERT ON THE ROOF GARDEN

Over six hundred people were present at the band concert given last night on the Alexander Young hotel roof garden. The roof garden was brilliantly illuminated and seats were provided for everyone that came.

On Saturday a dance is to be given at the hotel.

Mr. Henry Vieira and family wish to thank the many friends for their kind sympathies and floral offerings during their bereavement.

All lovers of good music should not fail to attend the Lawn Concert tonight at the residence of Mr. James B. Castle, given by the Honolulu Symphony society. Extra cars will be on the siding after the concert, so there will be no delay in returning to the city.

John K. Sumner's power of attorney to A. N. Kepoikai, Treasurer of the Territory, in his private capacity stops short of authority to sell property. The attorney is to collect rents and other incomes, execute leases, etc. He thinks it possible he may have something to collect from some of the attorneys who appeared for Sumner in the courts.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Henry Vieira took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence. A service for the dead was held in honor of her, who was a devout Catholic and a good mother. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery and it was a large funeral. The pall-bearers were T. R. Lucas, M. Peixoto, J. M. Camara, J. F. Eckardt, M. T. Marshall and J. G. Silva.

Assistant Attorney General Fleming has rendered an opinion to the effect that the United States statute relating to territories, which makes it a misdemeanor for clergymen to neglect to register marriages they solemnize, applies to this Territory. The maximum penalty is two years' imprisonment and a fine of $1000. District Attorney Breckons does not intend to look back for cases to prosecute.

Judge Mahaulu of Wai'alua was eyewitness yesterday to the reckless leap of a Chinese criminal from a moving train. The man has been wanted by the Wai'alua police for an attempt to burn a child alive. When he saw Mahaulu on the train he ran to the door of the car and jumped off. As he got mixed up with a wire fence after landing, the Judge had the train stopped but before the Chinaman could be reached he had extricated himself and disappeared in a thorny jungle.

A Honolulu Stowaway.

When the steamer Ventura arrived at San Francisco four stowaways were put ashore, one of whom was Johnny McCauley, the son of Pilot McCauley of this port. The lad hid aboard the Ventura when she passed through here and started out to see the world. He will be sent back to Honolulu in charge of Captain McPhail on the bark R. P. Rithet.

Rough-On-Bugs

Is the name of a preparation and is all that the name implies—Rough-on-bugs. It kills roaches, bedbugs, ants, and all insect pests instantly. It is superior to insect powder. It is in liquid form. Sprinkle in the crevices infested with roaches and bugs and it kills the old ones and destroys all the eggs. Declare war on the bug tribe and arm yourself with Rough-On-Bugs, the modern ammunition for housekeepers. 25c.
